UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, Plaintiff, v. JOSE ANTONIO MEDINA-PEREZ, Defendant.

Criminal Case No. 08CR0459-H

I N F O R M A T I O N

Title 18, U.S.C., Sec. 1001 - False Statement to a Federal Officer

The United States Attorney charges:

On or about April 26, 2007, within the Southern District of California, defendant JOSE ANTONIO MEDINA-PEREZ, in a matter within the jurisdiction of the United States Department of Homeland Security, a department and agency of the United States, did knowingly and willfully make false, fictitious and fraudulent statements and representations as to material facts in that he did represent and state to a federal officer while in immigration custody about the manner and location of his transportation to and within the United States, specifically, where he had been picked up by the alien smuggler who was transporting him within the Untied States, whereas in truth and fact, as defendant then and there well knew that statement and representation was false, fictitious and fraudulent when made; in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1001.

DATED: 2/21/08.
